

If you Support Law Enforcement, You Should Support Official Time

Council 33 uses official time to stand up for workers who have been wrongfully terminated, disciplined, harassed, or intimidated because of bad management practices. Official time is also used to improve correctional worker safety.

On official time we:

Eric Williams

Passed the Eric Williams Correctional Officer Protection Act which provides correctional workers with pepper spray.

Osvaldo Albarati

Reintroduced the Lieutenant Osvaldo Albarati Correctional Officer Self-Protection Act which would require BOP to provide gun lockers for our members.

Jose Rivera

Reintroduced the Thin Blue Line Act which will make murdering a law enforcement officer a capital crime.

Succeeded in getting the IRS 10% TSP penalty repealed, allowing us a fair retirement.

If these union-busting and pension-stealing bills pass, our voices will be silenced and our work to improve correctional worker safety will end.
